

EMERGENCY INFORMATION

Phone or see your doctor at your hospital straight away if you have any of these:

- bad or unusual pain – upper or lower tummy or back
- vaginal bleeding
- loss of fluid from your vagina that is not pee
- you can't feel your baby move
- your baby's movements are unusual
- headaches
- sudden swelling of hands, face, eyes with headache and vision problems
- pain or stinging when you pee
- very thirsty with little or no pee

Emergency Phone Number:
